

Nature and Visitor Center

The Crane Trust Nature and Visitor Center is located at Interstate 80 exit 305 on (the Alda exit). The beautiful Nature and Visitor Center welcomes guests to the Crane Trust's rare, protected lands.

Come inside to discover our interactive flyway map and migratory species display. Shop the gift shop and view nature-inspired art. Venture outside to encounter the butterfly garden and a small research herd of American bison along the path to an observation tower. Keep exploring across two footbridges to access our nature trails. We have something for everyone!

Hornady Art Gallery

The gallery showcases a wide variety of art by regional artists and photographers with Nebraska ties and subject themes. Items are for sale throughout the year.

Crimson Crown Gift Shop

Find a wide variety of gifts and keepsakes for all nature lovers. Items include books, cards, toys, jewelry, décor, apparel and more!

Nature Trails

A paved trail takes observers by our pollinator garden, interpretative sign displays, and our research bison herd. Enjoy the view from our 35-foot observation tower overlooking the prairie and river. Two footbridges span the north channel of the Platte River and lead to 10 miles of hiking trails on our native lowland tall grass prairie.

CRANE TRUST
NATURE & VISITOR CENTER
Interstate 80 exit 305

9325 South Alda Road
Wood River, NE 68883
308.382.1820

www.cranetrust.org

